"IRELAND IN REVOLT" TO BE EXHIBITED AT ST. SABINA'S CHURCH

The people of Auburn Park and Englewood will welcome the news that the super-film, "Ireland in Revolt," will be shown in the vicinity on St. Patrick's night. This picture will be run off at St. Sabina's hall, 78th and Throop Sts. The film was taken by Capt. Edwin F. Weigle, war correspondent for the Chicago Tribune, and made a successful run of six weeks at the Randolph theater, downtown.

Favorable comment has been heard everywhere on its impartial, clear and complete treatment of the most important question of the hour. Without pretense of favoring either side it gives an authoritative account of the terrible conditions in Ireland today. In its frankness, justice and fearlessness it pictures in a striking manner what Ireland is fighting for and how. Viewed from an Irish or British standpoint. "Ireland in Revolt" shows decisively the horror and tragedy of the whole situation. Raids, riots and reprisals, British military maneuvers, attacks by black-and-tans, counter-attacks by Sinn Fein forces, raids by motor lorries and armored cars, devastated villages and burned cottages, imprisonment of Arthur Griffith and the hunger strikers of Cork, then the solemn yet magnificent funeral of the martyr-hero, Terence McSwiney, give us an idea of the picture's wide scope. A brighter touch is given by the beautiful scenes of Killarney, the Meeting of the Waters and the rustic beauty of Blarney Castle. From whatever side you view the Irish situation, the film "Ireland in Revolt" will be appreciated for its sincere and impartial success in giving to interested America first-hand information about the greatest issue of the day.

LEGISLATORS ADVOCATE REMEDIAL RENT MEASURES

Remedial legislation which will give permanent relief from the present inflation of rent increases and the building shortage must be passed immediately.

This is the attitude maintained by Senator Frank Sadler and Representatives Frank J. Ryan, Phillip Gierler and William E. Cruden, representing the Eleventh Congressional District in the Illinois General Assembly.

Interviewed by the Englewood Economist reporter each member of the assembly believed some remedial measures should be taken in order to gain the equilibrium in rents and housing shortages which has gradually grown serious since the inception of the war.

Asked what he considered the better solution of the problem Senator Frank Sadler declared there seemed to be no sane solution of the situation. However, he declared measures must be taken immediately which will pervent further increases in the rentals.

Senator Sadler placed equal blame on the tenants in the problem.

"The tenant," Mr. Sadler said, "literally lays on his back and sets up a howl instead of going out after achievements that will benefit him. The tenant should take as much action as they deem advisable instead of sitting back and expecting his representatives in the General Assembly to do all the work. Co-operation is necessary and without it there is no remedial solution available."

Mr. Sadler also declared that buildings must rise if the tenant expects the rents to come down.

In order to encourage wholesale building there must be an investigation made into the present high cost of materials, the methods of the relentless landlord and others involved in this situation.

"In order to gain any headway in this investigation a committee should be organized that would make a thorough canvass of all details of the prevailing conditions."

Senator Adler declared he was for the tenant to the finish. He declared he was for some measure that would benefit the so-called victim in the present controversy.

"I shall keep my ears and my mind open in the hope of seeing some measure come into existence that will benefit the alleged victims of this present controversy.

HOUSE SHORTAGE IS BLAMED ON MATERIAL MEN

The increased rental wave, housing shortage and the lack of employment among building tradesmen rests on the shoulders of the material men and not the craftsmen, according to a statement made by a committee of carpenters and carpenter contractors in an interview given the Economist recently. Banks too, with their exorbitant interest rates, also were given part blame for the situation.

Figures purporting to show that the cost of material exceeds the cost of labor by more than 100 per cent in the construction of homes were given.

The committee comprising six members of the Carpenters and Joiners local, with headquarters at 6419 Halsted St., revealed that the total blame for conditions now prevailing is due mainly to the material men who have continued inflated prices for material while seeking to reduce the wages of the building trades.

Taking for example the construction of a six room bungalow which would cost the ordinary layman approximately $7,409.30, the committee revealed the cost of labor in comparison with the cost of material and other preliminaries which are components of the construction of a dwelling of this caliber.

The figures showed that the total cost of labor for a dwelling of this caliber would not exceed $1,560, an increase of 65 per cent over pre-war prices.

Cost of material to build this house cost in the neighborhood of $5,519.30, which showed an increase of 183.5 per cent over the pre-war prices.

Preliminaries leading to the construction of this home, including commissions on loans, examination of papers and the different commissions going to banks and abstract examiners would cost the builder $1,090, according to this estimate.

This makes a total of $7,409.30, of which labor has cost but a very small part in the construction.

"The banks, too, with their exorbitant interest rates, also makes the construction of a home practically impossible," one member of the committee declared. "The interest rates at the present time ranging far beyond the compatibility of the builder's pocketbook have shown no let-up and therefore the builder who would appreciate conditions affording the construction of a home of his own is satisfied to await the stabilizing of this condition before making a step toward owning his own home.

"Despite this, however, there are plenty of buildings being purchased which already have been constructed. This is mainly due to the fact that the persons desiring to own their own homes have laid aside sufficient capital to invest in a home without having to appeal to banking institutions for loans.

"If the cost of material would come down to such a level that would be within reasonable comparison with conditions that were wont to prevail prior to the war, labor, too, would perhaps reconsider their present wage conditions and the condition would then be settled for all times. But let material men make the reductions and labor then will be guided accordingly—but not until then."

PEREZ SPRING DANCE COMMITTEE ENGAGES 2 WHITE CITY HALLS

The daughter of Mrs. Burroughs, 6217 Ingleside Ave., was operated on recently for appendicitis. The surgeon stated that the "cause of the operation was ENAMEL GLASS CHIPS," and that nine out of ten of his cases are caused by the same.

Mrs. Schodroff, 2733 Wentworth Ave., died from blood poisoning, caused from an enamel chip lodged under her finger nail—one case out of hundreds.

We wish to remind you that it is impossible to get poisoned from "Wear-Ever" Aluminum. The dark discoloration on the inside of all aluminum pans is an IRON SALT, which is the healthiest tonic on the market.

The U. S. Government (see Bulletin 103) fed patients for nine months the discoloration taken from aluminum, and at the end of that time they were all in perfect health and full of "pep," while some of the patients fed from enamel ware contracted ptomaine poisoning and other ailments due to the glass chips lodging in the food.

The very best of enamel ware will rust, will chip, scorches easily, poor heat conductor, and forms poisonous compounds.

We guarantee that "Wear-Ever" Aluminum sold and distributed by us will not cause any of the troubles mentioned above. "Wear-Ever" lasts a life-time and we will equip your kitchen for "A DOLLAR A WEEK."

STRIKE OIL IN ESSEX, ILLINOIS

Property owners are dreaming of vast wealth following the striking of oil on the Frederick Palmer farm at Essex. At a depth of 215 feet a flow of approximately two barrels a day was developed. The well will be sunk further.

A few days ago corn, live stock, the income, road and bridge taxes were the chief topics with residents there. Today the talk is confined to leases, oil rigs, drills, cost of production, and soil strata.

There is not a farmer within a ten mile radius of the Palmer property who is not figuring on oil wells.

Claimed that violators of the prohibition act are hiring dummies to go to jail for them. They should not take pay for the privilege of getting free board.

CARE OF TEETH

By Dr. H. N. Novy

All questions relative to the care of teeth, mouth hygiene, etc., if of general interest, will be answered in this column. When space will not permit, letters will be personally answered.

WHERE QUILL TOOTHPICKS COME FROM

Few people know, probably, the reason why on dining cars of principal railroads and in most hotels of the first grade in price and social pretensions, goose quill toothpicks are supplied rather than the conventional wooden ones which people who dine more cheaply put up with. The reason is strangely mixed up with religion. One of the most plentiful products of China is geese. Some enterprising Christian missionaries of Foochow and Canton, Methodists and Presbyterians respectively, carry on a remarkable educational work. They come in contact with a teeming population of boys and girls, dreadfully poor according to American estimates of what boys and girls require to be comfortable and have a good time. So to help these children, the missionaries some years ago taught them to make toothpicks.

Curiously, when it came to the sale of the products, the Christian missionaries got their chief help from a New York Jew. This Jew employed; quite legitimately, information about where the picks came from and who superintended the making of them. He found sympathy among managers of dining cars and great hotels. The outcome, after about ten years, is the sale in the United States of vast numbers of these goose quill toothpicks made by poor children and sold by missionaries for their benefit, the missionaries giving their own services but realizing some small profit for the benefit of their schools. The Chinese boys are wonderfully clever at making the picks and turn out extraordinary numbers within an hour. It is stated that practically every goose quill toothpick which Americans use comes from China and has a missionary history.

Here is a chance to organize a society for the prevention of taking toothpicks from geese.—Oral Hygiene, October, 1920:

What causes the burning sensation when I wear my rubber plate?—B. R. N.

Rubber on vulcanite being a poor conductor of heat, retains the heat of the mouth and hot foods within the plate. This causes the burning sensation you speak of. Try applying a little olive oil, butter or glycerine to the roof of the plate before putting in mouth. This treatment will offer only temporary relief; but a good metal plate such as aluminum or gold will eliminate the trouble entirely.

Will hot poultices applied to the outside of the face help reduce the swelling caused by an abscessed tooth?

Under no circumstances should hot poultices be applied to the outside of the face, as a discharge of pus in that direction will cause a disfiguring scar. Use cold applications and gentle massage to reduce swellings.

The factories have reduced prices on woolens, and the stores that advertise and keep their stocks moving, can give the public the advantage of the new scale of values.

Visitors to Washington who perceive the whiskers cultivated by the eminent secretary of state, should not hastily jump to the conclusion that this is a bolshevist government.

"When this bill comes within my observation I shall support it to the utmost of my ability. The bill, however, must assure, in my mind, a permanent solution for the present conditions."

Profiteering landlords were classed as robbers who take an unfair advantage of the tenant in the present crisis by Representative Frank J. Ryan.

Mr. Ryan advocated passage of the Kessinger bill now before the house, which serves to make the raising of rents a criminal violation.

"I am for the tenant first last and all the time," Mr. Ryan declared.

"The only solution for the problem seems to lay in the Kessinger bill now before the General Assembly. This bill will receive my earnest support and I am hopeful that it will be passed.

"The methods being used by the landlord is nothing short of robbery and should be curbed before it exercises further unreasonable influences over the tenant in this era of house shortages when tenants find themselves bound hand and foot in the shackles provided for them by the profiteering rent gougers."

Asked his opinion in the matter Representative Giesler declared he would prefer to be left out of the controversy.

"I am for the working class," Mr. Giesler declared. "Measures pertaining to the welfare of this class and also referring directly to the interests of my constituents will be backed by me, whether they be bills to curb rent gougers or otherwise.

"However, I may say, that pressing work connected with my bills which have been introduced in the house and some of which have met with committee approval have kept me busy and therefore practically isolated from measures pertaining to the rental question.

"In this case it would therefore be an injustice for me to attempt to back any measures which I am in total ignorance of."

Representative Gruden was another member of the assembly who believed the Kessinger bill the favorable one which would offer a solution in the present situation. However, he declared he wished to be held in reserve on the question until the bill is investigated, due to some talk of it being unconstitutional.

In commenting on the measures now before the assembly Mr. Gruden said:

"Not wanting to do anything I would consider irrational I therefore do not see any way whereby I could inform my constituents on what measure I would prefer passed to alleviate the crisis now confronting them.

"However, the Kessinger bill, of which I only have a vague knowledge, seems to be the most propitious of the bills now before the house.

"I must remain receptive in this case because of prevalent rumors that the bill is unconstitutional. In this event it would be improper for me to make any assertions that I would favor an irrational bill.

"This bill comes up for investigation in committee some time this week and I must save my opinions or advocacies of any rental measures until the committee findings are made known.

"I will say this, however, that the Kessinger bill seems to be the most favorable one to me at present. My action in this direction will be totally guided by the findings of the committee."

While the members of the Englewood district are fighting the so-called rent gougers, city authorities also are taking remedial actions.

In these actions the Kessinger bill received the solid support of the local authorities.

The city council is expected to take some action this week on the measure.

"FORGET IT"

If you see a good fellow ahead of the crowd,
A leader of men, marching fearless and proud,
And you know of a tale whose mere telling aloud
Would cause his proud head to in anguish be bowed,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a skeleton hidden away
In a closet, and guarded and kept from the day,
In the dark; and whose showing, whose sudden display,
Would cause grief and sorrow and lifelong dismay,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a spot in the life of a friend
(We all have such spots concealed, world without end)
Whose touching his heartstrings would play on and rend,
Till the shame of its showing no grieving could mend,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

—The Fraternal Leader.

CRIME WAVE NOT DUE TO FORMER SOLDIERS, INVESTIGATION SHOWS

A permanent state branch of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States is completed for Illinois, the 44th city, and more will follow westward-ho. Robert G. Woodside of Pittsburgh, commander-in-chief of the national organization, headquarters 32 Union Square, New York, was a recent visitor to Chicago on an inspection tour of the west with the national council of administration, to ascertain facts pertaining to the ex-service men.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars recently authorized an investigation, Commender-in-Chief Woodside said, to determine whether the crime conditions in the United States are to be blamed on the ex-service men.

"Investigtion in the Chicago district showed that the criminals are not former service men, as has been frequently stated in the newspapers," he said. "We will gather statistics to see whether this is true of the nation, and propose to protect the good name of ex-soldiers, sailors, and marines. In addition federal legislation to merge all war chest fund surpluses into one fund and expend it relieving wounded service men or aiding families of men killed over there, will be urged by the national council of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The decision to ask congress for such legislation was made by our splendid legislative committee in Washington, D. C., March 5th, 1921."

The proposal, recently made, to turn war chest funds over to Europe or to divert it to private use, was condemned as misuse of the funds.

We believe charity begins at home, backed up by Capt. Marshall Field Post No. 177, as the war funds were collected for the service men, who now need aid.

Our state department is composed of 153 posts with a membership of 23,000 men who saw service overseas in all divisions of the three military branches. The Chicago officers are: E. W. Dickson, state commander; W. H. Chadwick, quartermaster-general; Chas. Avery, adjutant general, headquarters room 312, 58 W. Washington St.

Post No. 177 hereby authorizes to notify the general public that a drive is on for funds to build a memorial home for ex-service men, gold star mothers and auxiliaries.

Next meeting will be held on Monday evening, March 14th, at Prospect hall, 64th St. and Ashland Ave. Get in now if you want to join this gold stripe organization. Fee is nominal. Did you get over? If so, join now. W. Wingerning, commander; R. W. Rief, adjutant, 658 W. 61st Place.

Billy was only a whiskered goat, with no particular ambition. But Billy, despite his customary lackadaisical air, will go down in history—the first goat known to succumb to indigestion. Billy wandered away from the home of his master, J. Porter, 4807 S. Wabash Ave., yesterday. Two hours later he returned. Mr. Porter found him dying in the yard. An orgy of bill posters, tomato cans and old shoes proved too much for him.

HIGH INTEREST TO REMAIN SAYS REVENUE EXPERT

General Shortage of All Articles Is Reason Given in Address

The people of the country will continue to pay 7½ per cent interest for an indefinite number of years, Herbert J. Friedman, revenue expert and lawyer of Chicago and Washington, told the members of the Englewood Business Men's Association at their regular weekly luncheon held in New China restaurant, 63rd and Halsted Sts., last Thursday noon.

"The reason for this high interest, Mr. Friedman declared, is mainly due to the general shortage of everything, especially in this country.

"The probable trend of the rate of interest will be upward rather than downward in the next few years," Mr. Friedman declared. "I do not believe, however, that the sum will exceed the 7½ per cent market. Rather, to my mind, it will radiate from that point, perhaps a little higher today and a little lower tomorrow.

"Higher interest rates are mainly due to the shortage of everything in the manufacturing and other lines. America is not alone suffering a general shortage. The shortage is widespread and takes in every country in the world. This shortage is felt, likewise, in the farmost corners of Europe as well as at home.

"Today, through the shortage of food and other necessities, Europe is casting her appeals in every corner of the world, seeking relief for their stricken subjects. This is but a slight example of how the shortage is felt in other than this country."

Mr. Friedman then sought to elaborate for the interest of the luncheon attendants one of the major reasons for the so-called shortage with resultant high interest rates. In so doing he sought to enlighten his listeners by throwing light on the shortage of savings especially suffered by this country in post-war years.

"During the war," Mr. Friedman said, "the country expended or obligated to spend the sum of $40,000,000,000 annually for the manufacture of war materials and the perpetuating of the fight to strafe the Hun.

"Now in post-war years the country has strained itself in its efforts to save the sum of $45,000,000,000 annually. This sum adequately obliterates the yearly obligations set up through the world war, but immediately presents the shortage of general savings."

By his figures Mr. Friedman elucidated that the total over annual savings compared with war years was approximately $5,000,000,000, which he declared for a nation with such manufacturing and other resources as exist in this country is hardly enough to bring the interest rate on borrowed money and other loans back to a standard within the reach of every person in the country.

Rates of interest, Mr. Friedman declared, vary in size in the different parts of the country. This is due to the existing demand for said loans. In the farm loan districts, where loans are requested more frequently than in the city, the prevailing interest rate is much higher than that prevailing in the city.

Mr. Friedman then went into minute details with regards to the interest loans. At no time within the next few years would be predict a reduction in the rate of interest. This he declared would be adjusted along with the adjustments of industries which are gradually now taking hold in the various manufacturing lines of the country.

Although a small crowd heard Mr. Friedman, he was enthusiastically received.

A wave of mystery hung over the members of the association following Mr. Friedman's speech when President E. H. Holtorff announced the speaker for the coming week would be a mysterious Henry S. Chandler, who would address the members next Thursday noon. Mr. Chandler's subject will be "The Three R's."

Despite appeals from various members in attendance at the meeting, President Holtorff refused to reveal the identity of the speaker or to solve the mystery surrounding his subject.

The editor also attempted to pry into the confidence of the executive in an effort to appease his curiosity, but he too met with the same rebuke meted out to other members in attendance.

President Holtorff in concluding declared he hoped to see a larger attendance at the next meeting.

FOR THE RELIEF OF IRELAND

Always at the front in such doings, the National Theatre is stepping forward next week for the worthy cause of Ireland. A percentage of the proceeds are to go toward the relief of devastated Ireland, and the play to be given by Englewood's own stock company will be, "Come Back to Erin," a very appropriate play for the occasion. Tickets are being sold by the Lord Mayor McSwiney council of the Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, and it bids fair to be a busy week at the National Theatre. The play deals with an Irish lad who comes to this country when a boy, and after several years has occasion to go back to Ireland and finds that he is the next in line to inherit a large estate, but an English officer, being also a distant kin, is trying to wedge his way into favor with the old master of the estate. The play deals with the characters in a most human way, and is full to overflowing with good bright dialogue, and lots of comedy. A very pretty love story runs through the play as well, and taking it all in all it should provide an excellent vehicle for the National Stock Company. Tell your friends about it and don't forget the benefit for the Irish cause. Tickets can be bought from Patrick J. Quinn, corner of 63rd and May Sts.

Some of the gay boys from the farm who traveled to the cities last spring by Pullman car, are now walking back over the road.

Most alarming of all the shortage recently reported has been the skirt shortage.
